

Guide for a New Migrant in Brisbane, Australia
Rev 2 as of Sep 30, 2015
Step	Description	Link	Details
1	Bank Account Opening NAB Migrant Banking	http://migrant.nabgroup.com/en/home/australia/banking-in-australia/banking-for-migrants/types-of-account	You can open this account while sitting overseas before migrating and can transfer money to this account online. But you won't be able to use or transfer this money till the time you migrate to Australia and verify / activate your details by visiting your corresponding NAB branch
2	Tax File Number	https://iar.ato.gov.au/IARWeb/default.aspx?pid=4&sid=1&outcome=1	You can do it online once you land to Australia. The TFN letter mentioning your number will be delivered in next couple of weeks to your address.
3	Centerlink	http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/dhs/centrelink	For this, you need to go to your nearby centerlink office in person and get yourself and your family registered. Once done, Centerlink will provide you CRN (Customer Reference Number). This number can be used for any future correspondence. At the centerlink office, you will be advised to create your MYGOV account. Via this account, you will be able to claim any payments (if applicable in your case). For various payments and their eligibility criteria, either visit the link or talk to Centerlink Representatives.
4	Medicare	http://www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/subjects/medicare-services	For Medicare, you need to visit your nearby Medicare Office. Some Centerlink Offices also deal with Medicare Services. On visiting, you and your family will be issued a temporary slip mentioning your Reference Number. You can use this slip till the time, a Medicare card is delivered to your address. It takes couple of weeks for card delivery to home address.
